Chryst Rowe has a Master's of Music Education degree in voice.

In her early career she taught public school with a program of 250 students, directed The Central Kentucky Youth Choir, and served and held offices on state and national committees. Her groups consistently earned Superiors at regional events and were invited to national and international events. She has maintained a private voice studio for the past 30 years. She is not your conventional voice teacher who only teaches classical and musical theater, but also includes commercial music, artist development, song writing, and vocal producing. She brings music industry professionals to work with her students and recently had Grammy, Emmy, Dove awarding producer Shannon Sanders here. She has students working with Grammy-award winning producers and song writers in Nashville, have been offered publishing deals, and scholarships. Her studio won 2017 Southside Idol, 2017

Bradford Showdown, Miss Florida's Most Distinguished

Teen, Jax First Coast Star, first in Florida in Federation, top

3 in Jax Jazz Competition, to name a few.

Maylynn Leporacci has a Master's Degrees in Music and is currently a professor of Vocal Studies at Trinity Baptist College in Jacksonville,

Florida. Maylynn has experience in teaching music from kindergarten through college and recently placed among the top 12 vocalist in the nation in the American Traditions Competition. Maylynn well-versed in a variety of styles from classical and musical theater, to pop and rock. She also performs regularly and is often requested as a guest clinician and adjudicator; she is also a member of nationally recognized music organizations has developed a dynamic style of musical interpretation and is excited about working with the Jacksonville A Capella Experience for the 3rd year.

Katherine Crumrine is a native

Floridian. She served as music director and president of the AceBelles while working on her Bachelor of Music Education at FSU. She has worked as the Assistant Director of Band, Chorus and Strings, and was the Founder of the Festival Singers of Florida Eleventh Hour A Cappella, and Tapped

In Dance Company. Katherine recently completed her Master of Arts in Arts Administration at FSU. She has served as the Assistant Music Director and Arranger for Premiere A Cappella. She currently is the the Chorale Director at Mandarin Middle School and Children's Choir Director and Artist in Residence at Riverside

Presbyterian.
